William Hoppe, of this city, has organized a "Liberty League" society for divorced persons only, says an Altoona, Pa., special. He says the movement is bound to spread, and the large membership in the parent organization would seem to prove that the idea is popular.
"Divorced persons," said President Hoppe, are made social outcosts, because they have legally separated. The circumstances of divorces sometimes justify social expulsion, but not always.
"I am socially inclined, but when I apply for admirsion to the young persons clubs I am told that I am not wanted, because I am divorced, I seek to become a member of the married persons' society, and I am again excluded because divorced. "Under the circumstances we must form a club of our own or accept social ostracism."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 21.—The frequent and prolonged conferences of the council of ministers in the Yildiz palace are believed to indicate preparations to yield in principle to the demand of the powers in acceptance of the financial rotoms decided upon for Macedenia. Probably, however, the Turkish government will make further attempts to gain a modification of the plans before definitely accepting the full program. The arrival of the international fleet at Piracus is likely to hasten the Turkish decision. The Russian fleet has returned to Sebastopol after a short cruise in the Black Sea. May Accept Reforms.
